The Purpose of the Club:

To foster the cause of motorcycling.

To preserve the history of all classes of motorcycles

To encourage the collection, preservation, and maintenance of all motorcycles.

To collaborate with authorities and other bodies to bring about an understanding of the Club and enable the Club to carry out its objectives.

TO HAVE A GOOD ATTITUDE Articles for this newsletter are invited from contributors, especially info on other club member's activities. ☺ Opinions expressed in this newsletter are not necessarily those of the Club but could be if you find they fit your needs. Have something to say / share? The editor will do his utmost to insert it. :-)) This is what Irene Suffredini sent in. The history of the middle finger Well, now.....here's something I never knew before, and now that I know it, I feel compelled to send it on to my more intelligent friends in the hope that they, too, will feel edified. Isn't history more fun when you know something about it?

Before the Battle of Agincourt in 1415, the French, anticipating victory over the English, proposed to cut off the middle finger of all captured English soldiers. Without the middle finger it would be impossible to draw the renowned English longbow and therefore they would be incapable of fighting in the future. This famous English longbow was made of the native English Yew tree, and the act of drawing the longbow was known as "plucking the yew" (or "pluck yew"). Much to the bewilderment of the French, the English won a major upset and began mock ing the French by waving their middle fingers at the defeated French, saying, See, we can still pluck yew! Since 'pluck yew' is rather difficult to say, the difficult consonant cluster at the beginning has gradually changed to a labiodentals fricative F', and thus the words often used in conjunction with the one-finger-salute! It is also because of the pheasant feathers on the arrows used with the longbow that the symbolic gesture is known as "giving the bird." IT IS STILL AN APPROPRIATE SALUTE TO THE FRENCH TODAY! And yew thought yew knew every plucking thing.

LAST MONTHS QUIZ ANSWER WAS: Answer to this month's quiz.....Wait for the Merry-Go-Round to stop going round and then get off. Onya Brian and Liz, Geoff Blundell

THISMONTHS QUIZ: It is interesting that the federal government provides a single refugee with a monthly allowance of $1,890.00 and each can also get an additional $580.00 in social assistance for a total of $2,470.00. A single pensioner who, after contributing to the growth and development of Australia for 40 to 50 years, receives only a monthly maximum of $1,012.00 in old age pension and Guaranteed Income Supplement. Maybe our pensioners should apply as refugees! True or false

Butch the Rooster

John the farmer was in the fertilized egg business. He had several hundred young layers (hens), called "pullets," and ten roosters, whose job it was to fertilize the eggs (for you city folks).

The farmer kept records and any rooster that didn't perform went into the soup pot and was replaced. That took an awful lot of his time, so he bought a set of tiny bells and attached them to his roosters.

Each bell had a different tone so John could tell from a distance, which rooster was performing.

Now he could sit on the porch and fill out an efficiency report simply by listening to the bells. The farmer's favorite rooster was old Butch, and a very fine specimen he was, too.

But on this particular morning John noticed old Butch's bell hadn't rung at all! John went to investigate.

The other roosters were chasing pullets, bells-a-ringing. The pullets, hearing the roosters coming, would run for cover.

But to Farmer John's amazement, old Butch had his bell in his beak, so it couldn't ring. He would sneak up on a pullet, do his job and walk on to the next one.

John was so proud of old Butch, he entered him in the Murwillumbah Banana Festival and he became an overnight sensation among the judges.

The result...The judges not only awarded old Butch the No Bell Piece Prize but they also awarded him the Pulletsurprise as well. Clearly old Butch was a politician in the making: Who else but a politician could figure out how to win two of the most highly coveted awards on our planet by being the best at sneaking up on the populace and screwing them when they weren't paying attention?

Ed’s Note: If your name is misspelt or the bike you were on wrong or you did or did not have an orgasm on the day or you came on the run and do not appear on this page is entirely your fault. If I can’t read what you have written in my diary I can’t put it right on this page. I suspect some did put it right but the very next insert to the dairy was accompanied with bacon, runny egg or sauce or all of these marring your insert. Thanks to all for coming along it was fun.

A tourist walked into a Surfers Paradise curio/antique shop. After looking around for a while, he noticed a very life-like bronze Statue of a rat. It had no price tag, but it was so striking that he decided to buy it anyway.

He took it to the owner and said: "How much is this bronze rat?"

The owner replied: "It's $12 for the rat, and $100 for the story."

The tourist gave the owner his $12 and said: "I'll just take the rat, you can keep the story."

As he walked off down the street, he noticed that a few real rats had crawled out of the sewers and begun following him.

This was a little disconcerting, so he started to walk a little faster, but within a couple of blocks the swarm of rats had grown to hundreds, and they were all squealing and screeching in a very menacing way.

He increased his speed & ran on towards the beach, and as he ran, he Looked behind him and saw the rats now numbered in their MILLIONS, and they were running faster & faster. By now very concerned, he ran down to the pier and threw the bronze Rat far out into the water.

Amazingly, the millions of real rats jumped into the water after it and were all drowned.

The man walked back to relate all this to the shop owner, who said: "Ah, you've come back for the story then?"

"No," said the tourist, "I came back to see if you've got a bronze Muslim, a couple of Politicians, a Poof, a Broncos supporter and anything French".

PRESIDENTS REPORT :

The President gave me his Report over the telephone. Well...I hope it was the President who called. It was late in the evening and I am not at my sharpest after sunset. Whoever it was that called was drunk so I hope I can do it justice in relaying it to you.

There were utterances that Harry was over the moon with the Club and the members input. He was happy that all who attended the functions of fun appeared elated. Obviously the death threats early in his term of power were a thing of the past. He said he was in a state of high excitement at the support the committee were giving him in particular was the Editor who painstakingly provides the clubs monthly blurb. Of course I blushed.

He went on to say he was sorry that he had forgot to pay each of the constituents that voted him President the $5.00 he owed and that next year he will double up to $10 a vote. "Seems fair Harry" I said.

Harry was happy about the clubs effort on Raffle nights and club ride attendances. The only sadness's Harry imparted to me was that he suffered flatulence terribly and rode the wrong style of Bike and with the help of others that know better he would try a Beemer next time around. I said to Harry, "The flatulence and wrong type of ride go hand in hand and not to wait till the next life Harry before you change your ride"

In closing fellow members I could safely say Harry will in future put his Report on Paper and not entrust me to do it for him.
