Warren Bruggy and Jenny Lebillon CLUB MEMBERS OF THE MONTH:

Your efforts in club participation are appreciated
Warren and Jenny THANK YOU for help.

Good on you.

As an interim measure our club will make sure there is a member on the door to sign you in this coming month. Come along and have some fun.

2: If you have an email address would you please consider not receiving a hard copy of the mag? Either Dieter or I will send you an email each month informing you the mag is on the web site. In doing so it sure would save a few bob.

Perhaps you know of someone...your boss maybe who may wish to advertise? If so give us a yell. I may be of some assistance with art work?

Toll pass for visitors

For those visiting or passing through Brisbane there is a specific new toll pass – the go viaroad. The pass can be used to travel not just on the Gateway but any toll road in Brisbane, including the Logan Motorway, Clem 7 Tunnel and the soon to open Go Between Bridge.

Motorists can set up a go viaroad pass using a credit card over the phone on 1300 046 842, online at www.govia.com.au or by visiting a Queensland Motorways Customer Service Centre (Murarrie and Heathwood).

Queensland Motorways advises that there are no set-up costs or pre-payments required. The dates of travel, vehicle details and credit card details need to be provided and the pass may be set up before or up to three days after travelling.

The go viaroad pass is not available at participating go via retailers. Passes purchased at retailers are only valid for use on the Gateway and Logan Motorways. If you already have a go via account (tag or video), then you can travel on toll roads throughout Australia.

About the Pass: Valid for up to 30 days and allow for one registration number.

- Payment by credit card only. Can use on all Queensland toll roads.

- Can be backdated for up to three days following travel.

Video matching fees may apply to some toll points.

(Information supplied by RACQ).

The Brisbane Motor Show, postponed from June, has been cancelled apparently due to a lack of commitment from the motor industry. See: www.themotorshow.com.au

A message from QUEENSLAND MOTORWAYS

From 1 July 2010, toll prices, fees and vehicle classes will change on the Gateway, Logan and Gateway Extension motorways.

Tolls area changing in accordance with the Government's decision to introduce a new tolling structure for the motorways to facilitate a major upgrade of the southern end of the Gateway Motorway and a new, toll-free Port of Brisbane Motorway as announced by the Treasurer on 18 March 2010.

Tolls are necessary to help meet the cost of all new road infrastructure on the Queensland Motorways network, including the extension to the Gateway Upgrade Project.

Visit the Queensland Motorways website to view new toll costs and fees and charges from 1 July 2010.

From 1 July new vehicle classes will also be introduced to bring Queensland Motorways in line with other toll road operators in Queensland.

If you would like more information on these changes from 1 July, please call Queensland Motorways

Tinny Rally

Due to popular demand there will be a Tinny Rally REUNION on the weekend 7/8 August at the old rally site at Tingoora.

It will be a camp-over weekend only as it is not an organised rally as such, so there will be NO admission fees/badges. Also there will be NO catering/bar on site.

So BYO everything and come and socialise with your mates and share your favourite Tinny Rally moments.

Of course the Tinny Pub is just across the road. Pop in and say Hi to the new owners (as of last week) and Wondai is just 7 kms away for groceries, takeaway, butcher etc.

I would appreciate it if you are coming along that weekend for the REUNION, could you drop me an e-mail and let me know. AND remember it will be a bit cool.

HUMOUR

A very tall biker walks into a bar, and a lady recognizes him as a professional motorcycle racer. They start to talk and eventually go back to his place. They start to kiss, and the man takes off his shirt. On his arm, he has a tattoo that says REEBOK.

"What's that for?" the lady questions.

"Oh, I have this so that when I'm on TV, people will see my tattoo, and Reebok pays me."

Then the man takes off his trousers, and on his leg, he has a tattoo that says NIKE.

"What's that?" the lady questions again.

"Just like the Reebok tattoo, I get paid when this tattoo is seen on TV."

Then the man drops his underwear and on his penis he has a tattoo that says AIDS.

The lady screams: "Don't tell me you have AIDS!"

The man replies: "No, no.....!!! Calm down,"

"It will say ADIDAS in a minute."

HOW TO SELL TOOTHBRUSHES

The kids filed back into class Monday morning. They were very excited.

Their weekend assignment was to sell something, then give a talk on Productive Salesmanship.

Little Sally led off: "I sold girl scout cookies and I made $30," she said proudly, "My sales approach was to appeal to the customer's civil spirit and I credit that approach for my obvious success."

"Very good," said the teacher.

Little Jenny was next:

"I sold magazines," she said, "I made $45 and I explained to everyone that Magazines would keep them up on current events."

"Very good, Jenny," said the teacher...

Eventually, it was little Johnny's turn.

The teacher held her breath...

Little Johnny walked to the front of the classroom and dumped a box full of cash on the teacher's desk. "$2, 465," he said.

"$2,465!" cried the teacher, "What in the world were you selling?"

"Toothbrushes," said little Johnny.

"Toothbrushes!" echoed the teacher, "How could you possibly sell enough tooth brushes to make that much money?"

"I found the busiest corner in town," said little Johnny, "I set up a Dip & Chip stand and gave everybody who walked by a free sample."

They all said the same thing, "Hey, this tastes like dog shit!"

Then I would say, "It is dog shit...wanna buy a toothbrush?"

"I used the governmental approach of giving you something crappy for free and then making you pay to get rid of the aftertaste."
